ORDER

AND NOW, this 20th day of October, 2020, upon consideration of Hindolui Kennie's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (ECF No. 2), the Respondents' answer and response in opposition (ECF Nos. 13 and 21), and the Report and Recommendation of U.S. Magistrate Judge Carol Sandra Moore Wells (ECF No. 22), it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The Report and Recommendation is APPROVED and ADOPTED;<sup>1</sup>
2. The Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus is DISMISSED, without an evidentiary hearing;<sup>2</sup> and

---

<sup>1</sup> Petitioner was released from prison in February 2020, and he has not received a copy of the Report and Recommendation. However, it is the Petitioner's job to inform the court of any address change, and he has not done so since his release in February. Consequently, there is no way for the court to mail him a copy of the Report and Recommendation.

<sup>2</sup> Petitioner challenges his 2019 conviction on 2018 charges related to terroristic threats, among other things. However, Petitioner's claims are procedurally defaulted and he has neither demonstrated cause and prejudice for the default, nor presented any new, reliable evidence of his actual innocence to excuse the default. Consequently, the court cannot review his procedurally defaulted claims on the merits.

3. Petitioner has neither shown denial of a federal constitutional right, nor established that reasonable jurists would disagree with this court's procedural disposition of his claims. Consequently, a certificate of appealability is DENIED.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
